For one party Université des Mascareignes, represented by Dr. Radhakrishna Somanah (Dinesh), Director-General of Université des Mascareignes, Avenue de La Concorde, Roche Brunes, Rose Hill, Mauritius) and for the other party, Kharkiv National University of Civil Engineering and Architecture, represented by Prof. Dr. Yuriy Shkodovskiy, Rector, 40 Sumska Str., Kharkiv, 61002, Ukraine.

CONSIDERING

That both Institutions are joined by common interests and aims in the academic and cultural fields,
That both parties wish to enhance their own development, for which international collaboration is deemed to be very effective.
That it is desirable to set up a coordination process to specify activities and channel the administrative and financial solutions required by such collaboration,

DECLARE

That, since it is their intention to collaborate in the development of their teaching staff with regard to teaching and research matters, and to improve the quality of the educational services offered, both institutions consider it convenient to strengthen their academic ties and set up and develop their relations within a framework of cooperation and mutual understanding, so as to offer members, lecturers and students the benefits of a cultural exchange, and thereby

AGREE

To establish an institutional Collaboration Agreement in accordance with the following clauses:

Article one. This Agreement is intended to facilitate cooperation between the universities in the fields of higher education and research.

Article two. In the interests of achieving such cooperation, the signatories to this contract set out the following aims:

- 1) To notify the other party of congresses, talks, science conferences and seminars that might be organised by either party and to exchange all publications and documents produced as a result of such activities.
- 2) To promote the participation of teaching staff from the other institution in short courses, talks, seminars or congresses organised according to the provisions set out in the annual programmes of collaboration.
- 3) To support the exchange of lecturers, within the realm of possibility, for a certain period of time, for either teaching or research purposes.
- 4) To exchange students in accordance with the annual programmes set out in Article three, provided such programmes comply with the requirements that prevail in the receiving institution. With respect to social security, such students shall be subject to the regulations in force in the receiving institution.

Article three. This Agreement can be amended as agreed by both parts.

Article four. Both Universities shall endeavour to procure the necessary funding for the development of the aforementioned exchanges, to be charged to programmes carried out by institutions or organisations operating on a local, regional, national or international scale.

Article five. Three months' notice of the wish to terminate this Agreement may be given at any time by either one of the parties. However, this shall not prevent specific activities from being culminated, where these are already in progress.

Article six. This Agreement shall be valid for two years, and may be extended as agreed by both parties.
